STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

At present, the Epidemic Diseases (East Punjab Amendment) Act, 1947, is in force in the areas added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966 and in the areas which comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately before the 1st November, 1966 there is no corresponding law in force. With a view to bringing about uniformity in the matter of such law, it has been considered necessary to enact a unified law amending the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, in its application to the whole of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

This Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid object.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill is designed to replace without any modification the Punjab Security of State (Himachal Pradesh Amendment) Ordinance, 1984 (Ordinance No.1 of 1984), which was promulgated by the Governor, Himachal Pradesh, on the 14th January, 1984 and published in the Rajpatra, Himachal Pradesh (Extra-ordinary) dated the 18th January, 1984. The said Ordinance sought to remove the ambiguity in the wording of section 4-A as inserted, vide the Himachal Pradesh Act No. 11 of 1981 in the principal enactment, which empowers the State Government to restrict or prohibit activities in the form of exercises, drill, parade, rally or demonstration, which in the opinion of the State Government may be subversive of law and order. In view of the situation which has arisen on account of the activities of the extremists in the neighbouring State of Punjab and other adjoining States, it is expedient to remove the defect in the wording of section 4-A of the Punjab Security of State Act, 1953, as made applicable to this State.

The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objective.
